THE FOOLHARDY FOLK FESTIVAL

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

CAN I BUY TICKETS ON THE DAY?
The event is now sold out.

IS THERE MORE THAN JUST BEER TO DRINK?
Yes, we will have a full bar range, not just dozens of tasty beers. So you can expect cider, spirits, wine, soft drinks etc.

CAN I BRING FOOD & DRINK INTO THE FESTIVAL?
You are only allowed to bring your own empty reusable water bottles into the site at Arboretum, but not alcohol or other drinks. You are allowed food for personal consumption. There is a range of amazing street food available to purchase at the festival as well as the wide selection of delicious beverages across our bars. Please support our amazing local traders by buying their delicious food where you can. Bags will be searched on entry.

CAN I BRING MY CHILDREN?
Children are welcome if accompanied by adults, but please note that our free children's tickets are limited and available from www.alttickets.com/foolhardy-folk-festival-tickets

CAN I BRING A CHAIR?
We will be providing benches and hay bales as usual. Small foldable chairs and blankets are allowed within designated zones only. You may be asked to move if space becomes limited.

ARE DOGS ALLOWED?
Due to the footfall and movement of people on the site and its enclosed nature, the only dogs allowed on site are assistance dogs.

CAN I LEAVE AND RE-ENTER THE FESTIVAL?
You are not able to leave and re-enter the festival, however vulnerable customers or those with children will be able to leave and re-enter if you communicate this with our team on the door.
